Etegami Yasai Chawan by Omotenashi

These Veggie Drawing Bowls ("Etegami Yasai Chawan") are based on the year-round harvest, acting as a journey through the harvesting seasons, whether as multiple courses of one meal, or a shared experience for the whole table.

From the Paprika fresh out of the crisp Spring thaw, to Red Turnip as the weather warms in late in the season, to Summer's Eggplant, then Pumpkin starts to taper into the cooler autumn and finally White Radish as the last harvest of the season as the winter frost arrives.

パプリカ	"Paprika" or Capsicum
赤かぶ	"Akakabu" or Red Turnip
ナス	"Nasu" or Eggplant
かぼちゃ	"Kabocha" or Pumpkin
だいこん	"Daikon" or White Radish

Omotenashi Ramen Bowls

These ramen bowls, produced in a traditional 19th Century design are sought after thanks to their beautiful shape and finishing.

The form is hard to find now, with few artisans still producing them in this style that requires expert finishing and a multi-stage process to create the beautiful, richly coloured patterns.

The “double happiness” mark 囍 emblazoned in many of the patterns on these bowls is said to bring good fortune to guests and their hosts on special occasions.
